Atlantic Terrace & Llandudno

Atlantic Terrace Marquee

The Twelve Apostles Hotel and spa, situated in one of the Western Cape's most unique marine reserves, is the perfect choice for a special occasion, whether it is the romance and intimacy of a wedding, or a company's conference/boardroom meeting or incentive. Offering a selection of fully air-conditioned, state of the art meeting rooms, the tranquil settings, in-tune with their beautiful surroundings, are sure to motivate and inspire any event.

This 80-seater capacity venue overlooking the dazzling azure ocean is resplendent in its ambience of sophistication and grace. It is the perfect venue for a wedding or an exclusive product launch, as it is modelled on a fresh open marquee, ensuring that the salty breezes and astonishing sunsets spill directly into the main seating area.

The marquee can be set to virtually any configuration to accommodate anything from a DJ set-up, day light screens and projection systems to a stunningly eclectic themed light show all set against the stunning backdrop of the Atlantic ocean.

Llandudno Boardroom

This venue is ideal for an office set-up including conference calls with both wired and wireless internet connectivity. You may also consider the use of a high volume fax/printer or create a small office network in this cozy, professional environment with its adjoining entrance hall and stunning views.
